

How would I export all the data on my template including user defined fields for collections, standards and batches?

There is a new option to export all the data on the desktop including user defined fields for collections, standard and batches to Excel.

Make sure all the standards are showing on the standard pane and right click and select Export All with User defined fields.

Author: Datacolor

Saved From: <http://knowledgebase.datacolor.com/article-699.html>