

How Data Security works ?

Datacolor includes the capability to selectively limit a user's access to the data management functions. This feature was created to protect proprietary color data, such as standard measurements and colorant data. For more information please refer to the attached document for the capability to selectively limit a user's access to the data management functions. For more information please refer to the attached document.

For more information please refer to the attached document.

^

Author: Datacolor

Saved From: <http://knowledgebase.datacolor.com/article-117.html>