

Problem in correction options in DM PPI. When the customer try to put all the add in zero, and these numbers not changed!.

This happen because the colorant file is translucent and the film thickness in the white colorants that is using is different than one. They need to change this in the colorant file, in the white colorant to one, and calibrate again the colorant file.

Author: Datacolor

Saved From: <http://knowledgebase.datacolor.com/article-44.html>