

How can I measure multiple colors that will not all fit in the aperture?

Utilizing the sample holder , you can fold the material and secure it so that multiple colors are visible in the aperture plate. You may also use the "add" button in the select color separation screen to add additional colors that may be on other parts of the sample that are not visible with a single measurement .

Author: Datacolor

Saved From: <http://knowledgebase.datacolor.com/article-688.html>