

What are the zoom-in and pan function on the top left corner used for?

Some prints may have very small areas of color. To enable users to select these colors the zoom in capability can be used.

On the top left corner, switch between the magnifying glass to zoom in and the arrow to make your color selection. To return to the regular size view click on the right click mouse button.

Author: Datacolor

Saved From: <http://knowledgebase.datacolor.com/article-700.html>